Bring Flowers of the rarest

Reading 1: Readers Name: Ed

A reading from _the Book of Ecclesiastes (3:1-8)

For everything, there is a season and a time for every activity under heaven.

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to uproot;

A time to kill and a time to heal;

A time to tear down and a time to build;

A time to weep and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn and a time to dance;

A time to embrace and a time to refrain;

A time to search and a time to give up;

A time to keep and a time to throw away;

A time to tear, and a time to mend;

A time to be silent, and a time to speak;

A time to love and a time to hate;

A time to war and a time for peace;

God has made everything suitable for its time.

This is the Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

The Lords my Shepherd.

Reading 2: Readers Name: Jack

A Reading from the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy. (4: 6 – 8)

Be careful always to choose the right course; be brave under trials; make the preaching of the Good News your life's work, in thoroughgoing service. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come.

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

From now on there is reserved for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.
